

HOLIDAY PARTY

On the Memorial holiday, Thursday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour entertained a group of friends at a barbecue supper at their home 1610 Amapola.

Enjoying the affair were Messrs. and Mmes. Harville Gutfenfelder, Sidney Hopkins, Baker Smith, R. A. Bingham, B. W. Roberts, Frank Paour III, Gus Kelly and Mrs. Dorothy Rojo.

MRS. ROYAL E. LIGHT
... On Wedding Day

Phyllis Brandmire Becomes Mrs. Licht in Church Rites

To the strains of the traditional wedding march more than 125 guests stood to await the entrance of the bride last Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the First Baptist church when Miss Phyllis Brandmire became the wife of Royal E. Licht. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brandmire of Wilmington and Mr. and Mrs. George Licht, 1619 W. 216th St. are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Brandmire walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a Chantilly lace gown over ice blue tulle fashioned with a sweetheart neckline with folds of ice blue tulle outlining the front. A pannier of pale blue ruffles was down the front of the skirt overlapped with scallops of Chantilly. The fingertip veil of ice blue tulle was held by a pearl and sequin crown and she carried a blue fan banked with white orchids and tied with blue streamers.

Mrs. Richard Stellway served as the honor attendant wearing a pink princess gown and carrying deep pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Blank, Mrs. Marvin Kerbel, and Mrs. William Stahl. Their gowns were of ice blue lace and their bouquets were light pink nosegays.

Flower girls were Debbie French and Vicki Stellway. Their entire frocks were made of pink nylon ruffles. George Jenkins carried the rings.

Carlos French stood as best man and ushers were Charles Beville, George A. Licht, and William Licht. Rev. N. Bond officiated at the marriage. E. T. Walton at the organ played the "Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly".

Mrs. Carlos French was in charge of the guest book at the wedding reception held at the Moose hall. Mrs. Robert Array presided at the gift table.

After a Las Vegas honeymoon, the couple will establish a Torrance home.

The bride was graduated from Banning High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of Narbonne High.

WINSLOW GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons and three children of Winslow, Ariz., spent several days during the past week with Dr. and Mrs. Burton Easley, 3306 Eldorado.

MRS. PAUL R. COMON
... Married Here

Moody-Comon Nuptial Vows Are Exchanged at Nativity

Altar of Nativity Catholic Church was banked with vases of white blossoms and candles and the place of ceremony was marked with white wicker baskets filled with white carnations and gladioli on Thursday morning, May 30, for the 11 o'clock nuptial mass uniting in marriage Miss Shirley R. Moody and Paul R. Comon. The bride is the daughter of Clyde A. Moody, 1342 Engracia Ave. and Mrs. Eleanor C. Schaefer of Huntington Park. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ross Comon, 1011 Amapola Ave.

As the 150 wedding guests assembled Mrs. M. McConologue at the organ accompanied Frank Algarme who sang Schubert's "Ave Marie" and Miss Diane Powers who sang "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Powers and Mr. Algarme sang the "Panis Angelicus" during the ceremony.

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Comon in blue tulle over blue eyelet taffeta and Mrs. Alexis Ulrich in green tulle over green taffeta. Their bouquets were yellow carnations.

Mrs. Mary Jean Charity was the matron of honor. She wore yellow tulle over yellow taffeta and carried yellow carnations. Then came the lovely bride on the arm of her father. Her waltz length wedding gown was of lace over taffeta fashioned on princess lines. Details were long lily-point sleeves and a mandarin collar. A pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of ivory carnations tied with ivory satin.

Standing as best man was Joseph Ulrich and ushers were Thomas Charity and Gaston Cristea. The Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated at the vow exchange and the mass.

A reception followed at the YWCA hall where Miss Susan Cemore and Mrs. Marie Cristea registered the guests.

After their two weeks honeymoon in Santa Barbara and along the northern coast Mr. and Mrs. Comon will reside at 1728 Andreo Ave., Torrance.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's Academy in Los Angeles in 1951. She is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co. Mr. Comon was graduated from Torrance High in 1949, Harbor Junior College in 1954 and the Julian Hatt Institute of Photography in 1957. He is now employed by the A-1 photography firm.

Mrs. Henry Schmal Is New Las Vecinas Prexy

Mrs. Henry Schmal, 428 Calle Mayor, has been elected to the presidency of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club. Others elected at the club's recent monthly meeting were Mrs. Charles Sturgil, first vice president; Mrs. T. R. Corazza, second vice president; Mrs. Walter McClelland, recording secretary; Mrs. M. L. Barger, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hewitt Coleman, treasurer;

Mrs. Maurice Wilson, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Robert Neilsen, philanthropic chairman; Mrs. Robert Elston, membership chairman, and Mrs. Albert Koester, publicity chairman.

The new officers will be installed at the meeting June 27 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club.

A tea for provisionals will be held by the Las Vecinas organization at the home of Mrs. B. Pinkey, 1010 Avenue H, Redondo Beach.

Along with board members and sponsors, the following provisionals will be guests: Mmes. Marvin Bandoli, Laman Bonnette, Wilbur French, Schuyler Gardner, Ivan Gilbert, Jack Hatch, J. D. Jacks, Douglas Jarvis, George Kuehnel, Gordon Maclean, Luther Mayo, Donald Meyer, Luther Oswald, P. A. Schindler, George Vice and Sidney Welch.

A new style note was added to the Las Vecinas spring dance held at Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach Saturday, June 1. Sharing the spotlight with the ladies in their formal cotton were several courageous souls of the opposite sex in formal Bermuda shorts.

Hostesses at the reception were Mmes. Cecil Coughlin, Harold McMann and Earl Andrews. Mrs. Dee Martin was in charge of the gift table and Frank Everett Mans, the guest book.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Torrance High School. Mr. Boland attended El Camino College.

The new home will be at 113 Paseo Deleplane, Hollywood Riviera.

Patricia Mans Recites Vows With W. J. Boland on Sunday

Marriage promises were made last Sunday afternoon, June 2, by Miss Patricia Wilma Mans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Mans, 2423 Cabrillo Ave., and William John Boland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boland of Redondo Beach. The ceremony was solemnized at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of candlelight satin and chantilly lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was secured by a flat headpiece of lace and pearls and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Norma L. Wagers, in yellow crystalline and carrying yellow roses, was the maid of honor. Misses Stella Mae Windham and Barbara Nicolaisen were the bridesmaids. Their bouffant gowns were of pink crystalline and each carried a cascade of pink carnations.

A. G. Windham served as best man and ushers were Clyde Denham and Bud Nicolaisen.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Oscar Walton, organist, who also accompanied Renee Barnes who sang "True Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Rev. Nathan Bond officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the church and the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Yosemite and Las Vegas.

Hostesses at the reception were Mmes. Cecil Coughlin, Harold McMann and Earl Andrews. Mrs. Dee Martin was in charge of the gift table and Frank Everett Mans, the guest book.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Torrance High School. Mr. Boland attended El Camino College.

The new home will be at 113 Paseo Deleplane, Hollywood Riviera.

Chris Joneses Observe 45th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones of 2118 Martina Ave., celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary May 30 with a buffet dinner for their immediate family.

Following the dinner they all enjoyed games and visiting. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones, children Evan, Carolyn and Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones, children Gordie and Diane, all of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones, daughter Lorna, of Lomita; Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Hunt and daughter Shellee of Santa Ana, and their lifetime friends Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chalton of San Pedro.

Forty-five years ago Mrs. Jones arrived from England and was married to Mr. Jones the day after she trained in from New York. They had known each other in Aberdare, South Wales, for a long time and Mr. Jones arrived in the United States first to establish residence for his prospective bride.

ATTEND U OF A COMMENCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinette, 4543 Palos Verdes Dr. N., Rolling Hills, have returned from Tucson where they attended the commencement exercises at which their daughter, Mrs. Roberta Robinette La Torre received her BA degree. Their son-in-law, Victor Robert La Torre, also received his masters in science in electrical engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. La Torre who were married in January are leaving this week to visit Mr. La Torre's parents in Kingspark, Long Island, N. Y. Upon their return, they will be at home in Tucson where Mr. La Torre is an instructor at the University of Arizona.

CLASS HOSTESS

Mrs. W. I. Laughon entertained the 17 members of the Adult Education Hat Class at an enchilada luncheon at her home 1538 El Prado, Tuesday afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD J. GANNON
... At Golden Wedding Jubilee

Gannons Renew Nuptial Vows On Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Gannon, 2077 237th St., marked their golden wedding anniversary when they repeated their vows during a solemn high mass Sunday at St. Margaret Mary Church in Lomita.

Two of the Gannons' sons officiated at the service. The Rev. Bernard Gannon was the celebrant while the Rev. Tom Gannon of St. Mary's was the deacon. The Rev. John V. Hegarty, pastor of St. Margaret Mary's of which the couple are pioneer members preached the sermon. Fifty priests were in attendance as well as Bishop Cantwell of Los Angeles.

Following the mass, some 75 persons were guests at a banquet in the parish hall honoring the couple who have resided here since 1912.

A special guest at the affair was Mrs. Anna Mullan of West Los Angeles, sister of Mr. Gannon. Mrs. Mullan was a member of the wedding party when the Gannons first recited their vows June 26, 1907, in Sacred Heart Church in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Gannon were neighbors in Ireland as youngsters.

Helping their parents to celebrate 50 years of marriage were all of their children and 18 grandchildren.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Gannon of Lomita, Mr. and Mrs. James Gannon of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gannon of Van Nuys and Mr.

and Mrs. Edward Brunner of Gardena.

The Rev. Bernard Gannon is pastor of the Presentation Church in Los Angeles while Rev. Tom Gannon is assistant at St. Mary's in East Los Angeles.

Guests at the banquet each had a piece of the seven-tiered white and gold wedding cake.

Decorations were carried out in the same white and gold color scheme—even the food served was of the same colors.

Candlesticks were gold with "just-a touch" of Irish green.

MRS. W. J. BOLAND
... On Honeymoon

AT OPTIMIST INSTALLATION . . . Two past presidents of the Torrance Optimist Club enjoy the evening with their wives during installation festivities here Saturday night. Left to right are Chris Sorenson, Mrs. George Bradford, Bradford, and Mrs. Sorenson. H. A. Massie was installed as president.